MEASURES URGED AS CITY NEED

The Park and Recreation Commission composed of E. C. Blow, William Garren, Carl J. MacWilliams, Robert E. McCullough and M. S. Perkins urged the citizens of Albany to support Propositions Nos. 1, 2 and 3 that will appear on the ballot at the City Election, Monday, April 8.

Chairman Blow, speaking for the Commission, pointed out that never in the history of the country has the interest on money secured through bond issues been as low as 2 per cent and warned that now is the time to take advantage of this low interest rate and construct needed recreational facilities. He stated that the City has no bonded indebtedness beyond June and that the community could well afford to spend on an average of $250 per family a year for adequate recreational facilities. The Commission pointed out that land is a scarce item in our City, and that we should take immediate steps to build and improve these facilities while there is still a chance to save the taxpayers considerable money.

Blow stated that Proposition No. 1 provides for the construction of a Public Community Center Building at a cost of $200,000 and that said funds will be used to purchase land, construct building and purchase furniture, fixtures and equipment.

Proposition No. 2 states that the sum of $45,000 will be used for the improvement of necessary recreational facilities of Memorial and Terrace Parks which will include night lighting of tennis courts and softball fields, construction of basketball courts, resurfacing of tennis courts and sidewalks, installation of adequate drainage system, improvement of fence, apparatus and equipment.

Proposition No. 3 provides the sum of $35,000 for the purchase of land, construction of park facilities, landscaping and equipment.

Blow, concluded by stating that communities throughout California and the Nation have approved similar bond issues calling for large expenditures of funds for recreation. Blow said that unless steps are taken immediately to construct and improve our playground and community center facilities, our community will be seriously handicapped in the future and that the leisure time and recreational opportunities for our citizens will be endangered.

Service Change, On 'H' Bus Line

Under the new arrangement, which is being made in order to facilitate the movement of heavy commuter traffic utilizing the "H" line, only those passenger destined to westbound trips during this three hour period.

Vote Precincts To Be Set up for City of Albany

To provide adequate voting facilities for the city of Albany, the county of Alameda will set up 35 voting precincts, according to Thomas E. Caldecott, chairman of the board of supervisors.

Albany's growth during the past few years has been remarkable, states Caldecott, and the people are remaining in the community, all of which means prosperity for Albany and a continual growth. Albany is part of the 4th Supervisorial District which is represented by Caldecott who, as Dean of the board, is also its chairman.

Voters will elect a United States senator from California, a member of congress, a governor, a full complement of state and county officials and members of the lower house (assembly) of the state legislature. In several townships scattered throughout Alameda county the voters will select their local justices of the peace.

Serving as election officers in Albany's voting precincts will be 140 citizens. The primary election is June 4.

ST. ALBAN'S BUILDING PLANS READY

New St. Alban's Episcopal Church - Albany - Cal - Rev. Randolph C. Miller - Vicar

A church edifice and a two-story community house at the corner of Washington and Curtis Streets will be constructed by the congregation of St. Alban's Church as soon as building conditions allow and the current financial campaign is completed.

Modern Gothic architecture has been planned for both buildings. The church will be arranged to seat 200 people in the nave, 22 in the choir and 48 in the balcony. The entrance will be on Washington Street, with the altar facing to the north.

The community house has been planned in consultation with educational experts, and Arnold Constable, the architect has provided for modern class rooms on the first floor and a large community hall for social affairs on the upper floor. This hall will have a high ceiling and no posts. A modern kitchen, situated for the greatest convenience, will be in the wing between the buildings.

A brochure containing the complete plans has been designed by the Bishop's Committee, and 6000 copies have been mailed during the past week. An accompanying letter from Frank G. Sibilla, chairman of the building fund committee and well-known "vocational giver," includes the names of Albany and El Cerrito residents who favor this project.

Among the people of all churches sponsoring this project are Paul C. Bryan, Elmer Coble, U. R. Grey, Louis J. Hardie, Grace L. Higgins, Bert E. Hill, Edwin S. Howell, Walter C. Kees, Myrtle McLean, Nell Moore, Oliver A. Nelson, May Ellis Olson, Myles C. Perkins, Fred Pimental, Duke M. Saltee, Stan C. Williams, and Ila Mae Wilson of Albany; Mrs. Howard Lathe, M. R. Marcus, Jr., Mrs. L. E. Thornton, Joe Martyn Turner, and Mrs. Merle Turner of El Cerrito.

Through "baby bonds" and "vocational giving," the congregation of St. Alban's has already raised a sufficient amount of money to purchase the well-located lots and enough cash to make sure of the project. The building fund committee is now planning to raise enough money to begin construction in the near future.

The Rt. Rev. Karl Morgan Block, Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of California, points out that St. Alban's "has entirely outgrown its present quarters. Under the leadership of the Rev. Randolph Crump Miller and with the dramatic assistance of Mr. Frank Sibilla, the people of St. Alban's have purchased a new well-located lot and have amassed some seven thousand dollars toward the construction of a new building or buildings. This is our only need at present at St. Alban's—new buildings. Here again the Diocese has the assurance of sacrificial effort on the part of the congregation and of steady and sturdy growth justifying a venture in equipment comparable to the opportunity so plainly indicated."

NEW AUTO SHOWROOM IN ALBANY

Howard Rohrer, Albany dealer for Kaiser-Frazer automobiles, has the go-ahead signal for the construction of an $85,000 show-room and garage at 969 San Pablo Ave. following approval by the Albany City Council of his building permit.

Albany council members, acting on the request of the City Planning and Zoning Commission, unanimously approved Rohrer's building permit and waived the 10-foot rear yard requirement.

Rohrer, who was named the Albany agent for the new Kaiser-Frazer cars in January, disclosed that the new building—a two-story, steel concrete affair with a 150-foot frontage on San Pablo Ave. and a depth of 100 feet—will be erected on the present site of his used car lot. He will move his used car business directly across the street from the proposed building, where his lot will have a 123-foot frontage.

Rohrer expects the construction period to take from six to eight months.

In another action of approval the Albany City Council, with Mayor R. F. Cleary presiding, granted a $5 monthly increase to Firemen Don Day and William Hutt.

'FINANCE' IS THEME AT FORUM

After seven successful meetings the Albany Forum Series, "Homes for Tomorrow" will be concluded this Thursday evening at Cornell School Auditorium. Probably the most important and basic questions will be discussed. Edmund Pitts, public relations representative of the California Land Title Association, Los Angeles, will give an illustrated talk on "Escrow and Title Insurance Protection."

William J. Bowman, president and manager of the Albany Federal Savings and Loan Association, will discuss the second topic, "Budgeting and Financing Your Home." Mr. Bowman, well known civic leader, will present an over-all picture of the problems in home financing today.

All seven meetings of the forum series have drawn capacity crowds and have received favorable public comment. Oliver Nelson, president of the Albany Chamber of Commerce stated, "Public response to this forum indicates that Albany residents are interested in their homes and in Albany. The Chamber of Commerce is happy to have sponsored such a program as a service to the community."

Exchange Club Honors Candidates

Albany Exchange club honored candidates for Albany city offices at a recent meeting. Among the candidates on hand to offer brief campaign speeches were: Mrs. Kathie Zahn, Mrs. Elizabeth Bechtel, Henry Henriksen, Delmar Wisenor, Bob McCullough, Carl Nieper Jr., Frank Hays, Bert Hill, Stan Williams, Robert Larson, Gartner Thomas, Geo. Glavinovich, and Joe Young.

Bill Garren explained Proposition Nos. 2 and 3; Frank Hays, Proposition No. 4; and Larry Williams Propositions Nos. 5 and 6.

Lt. Robert W. Crawford, Welfare and Recreation Officer in the Naval Landing Force Equipment Depot, addressed the Albany High School students and faculty during the Assembly, Wednesday morning, March 27, on the importance of adequate recreation facilities in the community. Crawford, former President of the National Society of Recreation Workers of America, overseas Veteran of World War II, a resident of Albany for the past two years and more recently appointed Public Relations Officer of Sawtelle, one of the largest rehabilitation centers in California by the Veterans' Administration.

Crawford stated that the future of America depends upon the character and quality of its youth and that constructive leisure time opportunities aid so materially in the formation of good character and citizenship.

Lt. Crawford said, "I am very glad of the opportunity to come here this morning to speak to you for a few minutes on an important and timely subject which is most necessary to the present and future development of Albany. I refer to the proposed public community center building which will be submitted to the voters on Monday, April 8th."

"The city officials of Albany are to be congratulated for making available the opportunity for the voters to express themselves on this subject. Albany is fortunate in having such civic minded organizations as the Cornell, Marin and High School Parent Teachers Association, American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 292, Exchange Club, Lions Club, Fraternal Order of Eagles, American Legion, pro-School Mothers Club and Veterans of Foreign Wars."

I note these groups have publicly endorsed Proposition No. 1 as should every individual who has Albany's future development at heart.

"Since you are the future citizens and voters of this city, you will soon be called upon to assume the responsibilities that are now carried by your elders. Therefore the proposals should be of paramount interest to all of you. The need for proper recreational facilities and programs is basic and fundamental to the American way of life. It is one of the foundations of American democracy. The importance of selecting leisure time pursuits wisely cannot be over-emphasized. Selection will be limited however unless the city affords ample opportunities. I am sure that with your social background and understanding we need not dwell further upon the necessity or philosophy of recreation. Only a few pertinent facts need be explained."

"Some of the questions on your minds might be, what is this Proposition No. 1? What does it entail? How will it effect us as individuals? Why can't this referendum be postponed to a later date? What use will be made of the building? Who is eligible to use it? What are other cities and towns in the country doing along these lines? Since I have no axe to grind, I feel that I am in a position to give you an unbiased opinion of the merits of Proposition No. 1. I know something of the problems of Albany as

I have been closely associated during the major part of the past three years.

"Proposition No. 1 is a proposal for a public community center building as a living war memorial. This community center would serve the recreational, social, and cultural needs of the children, youth, and adults. Facilities such as a gymnasium, youth center, auditorium, club rooms, etc., would be included, therefore, a wide variety of activities could be provided. I'm told it is to be a center where everyone will be welcome and where each age group of the community will be able to find activities suited to their desires and needs. Albany is one of the few progressive cities in California without a community center.

"What are other cities doing? We need only to glance at our daily papers to see what some of the suburbs of Albany are doing along similar lines.

"Berkeley is submitting to the voters on the 30th of April a proposal for funds amounting to approximately $700,000 for recreation and park improvements. Oakland has approved large expenditures for swimming pools and other recreation improvements. A community is an exception to the rule if it is not enlarging or making plans for enlarging its recreational facilities at this time. Victory arches and statues are out. The people want memorials to be of the living kind where further enrichment of living can be happily pursued. Proper use of leisure is uncontestable. Opportunity for pursuit of wholesome recreational activities will largely determine the type of city that you will have.

"Why can't this be postponed? Any further delay will only contribute to a greater burden later on. Available space is limited. Some cities have made similar mistakes in the past and then when they get around to acting, they find no suitable sites are available and the cost is prohibitive. Money will be saved by making this community improvement now.

"There are two other proposals that merit your interest and attention. Proposition No. 2, which is improvement of Memorial and Terrace Parks with lights for night use. Proposition No. 3 which is to develop a play ground west of San Pablo. There are over 750 homes in this area. If a child wishes to attend a playground, he has to cross San Pablo Avenue and travel approximately one-half mile. Standards set by the NRA state that there should be a playground within a quarter mile radius of every child's home.

With few exceptions the armed forces were provided with comprehensive programs of recreation in all theatres. Both the Army and Navy emphasized the necessity of recreation activities being available for all personnel during their off duty hours. During the darkest days of the war, the importance of these programs was recognized and immediately after the cessation of hostilities additional emphasis was placed on wholesome recreational pursuits. As a result of their experiences, I'm sure we'll find these young service people coming home expecting to find similar opportunities. I'm sure that the returning service men and women of Albany will enthusiastically endorse these proposals and will wish to see favorable reaction from their fellow citizens.

"The Albany Recreation Department is doing a creditable job and has been widely commended locally as well as from other parts of the country. It is well known, however, that the facilities are inadequate as most of you can testify. You cannot expect a well-rounded program stream-lined to suit the needs of people with more leisure time than ever before without the proper tools. No dramatic appeal needs to be made. Just a common sense approach that is based on scientific research in this field of human engineering."

An open letter to my many friends and voters of Albany.

I feel it is fitting that I should, at this time, state to you the reasons why I am asking you to elect me to the office of City Attorney.

As you know the duty of the city attorney is to advise the city officials and department heads on all legal matters appertaining to their offices. In this he has the same responsibility in serving them and the city of Albany as any private attorney has in serving his client, namely that of advising correct legal procedure necessary to solve his or their problems. To accomplish this in the most efficient and harmonious manner the following things are necessary.

First that he refrain from using his office to influence the city officials in establishing their policies, this, I agree to do.

Second that he maintain a full time office in Albany so that the services of the city attorney may be available to the several departments of our city government at all times. I believe an office operated in such a manner would promote better cooperation between all concerned. This I am able to offer without reservation, having maintained an office in your community for the past ten years. No other candidate for this office can offer you this service.

Third that he refrain from forming any alliance with any group or groups but endeavor to serve all the citizens of Albany in the most just and upright manner. In the present campaign I have not endorsed or opposed any person seeking any office.

Since in law practice I have dealt with a great variety of legal problems and cases pertaining to city government, I feel I am well qualified to serve you as your City Attorney. If elected I will endeavor to perform my duties in a most prompt, efficient and honest manner.

Sincerely,
GARTNER S. THOMAS.

I Would Like To Serve You on the City Council

KATHE S. ZAHN
LAST NAME on the ballot under Council

● I realize that in many instances you, fellow citizens, are unable to attend the City Council meetings, BUT, IF YOU ELECT ME TO THE CITY COUNCIL, I WILL SEE TO IT THAT YOU ARE ALWAYS FULLY INFORMED as to the vital decision that are made, and why.

● If elected to the Office of City Council I promise that, as far as I am concerned, THERE WILL BE NO CLOSED SESSIONS PRIOR TO COUNCIL MEETINGS WHERE PROBLEMS VITAL TO THE CITIZENS OF ALBANY ARE AIRED AND DECISIONS ARRIVED AT; --- as has been the practice here with our present City Council.

● I realize that final decision on matters rests with the legislative branch of our city which is the CITY COUNCIL; BUT --

SINCE THE CITIZENS OF ALBANY ELECT THEIR REPRESENTATIVES TO OFFICE, I BELIEVE THAT THE CITIZENS SHOULD BE PERMITTED TO VOICE AN OPINION ON MATTERS THAT INTEREST THEM, AND THEREFORE, IF ELECTED TO THE OFFICE OF CITY COUNCIL I WILL INVITE THE CITIZENS' COMMENT IN OPEN SESSION.

● If elected to the office of City Council I will try to create a friendly atmosphere during meetings, SO THAT WHENEVER CITIZENS COME TO COUNCIL MEETINGS, THEY WILL FEEL THAT THEY ARE WELCOME AND THEIR OPINIONS ARE VALUED AND RECEIVED OPEN MINDEDLY; --- unfortunately this has not been the case in many instances during the life of our present city council.

● If elected I will see to it that the City of Albany will be one of the healthiest places in the East Bay to live in. Since I have excellent connections with the United States and California State Health Departments, I will use these connections to get us all the benefits that are available and that many communities already enjoy. Since, owing to the war, the West Coast faced with many diseases that never confronted us in prior years, it is necessary to have good health protection. I WILL SEE TO IT THAT WE GET IT.

● In conclusion, I wish to state, that I now understand why it is so difficult to persuade a citizen to run for public office. Not being a politician and therefore not being used to political tactics --- it requires a lot of self-control to ignore the malicious lies that are being spread here in Albany about me with the intention to besmear my name. I have received letters containing obscene sentences --- and actual threats by telephone against my life and property if I would not leave town before the election; BUT --- I CAN TAKE IT.

● I have not bothered anyone by ringing doorbells because I feel that if a man comes home tired from work, he wants to have his peace, and for the same reason during the day I did not wish to disturb the lady of the house who probably at that moment was doing some important work.

JUDGE ME BY MY PREVIOUS ACCOMPLISHMENTS AS A PUBLIC SPIRITED CITIZEN, which I have pointed out to you in the little card I sent through the mail. Should you elect me to the City Council I will do my best to make you proud of me, because I love Albany and will always have our interests here at heart.

ABOUT HOME FINANCING

We welcome loan applications to build or buy homes in Albany. We offer a home financing service that is broad and varied to meet individual requirements. This service is grouped under two general plans: FHA Insured Title II loans and regular amortized bank loans.

To this bank's officers, "service" to home buyers means financing that is good for the borrower and good for the bank which lends its depositors funds. Upon inquiry, we believe you will find the loan to fit your personal requirements at this independently-owned and managed bank.

NOW...EVERY FAMILY CAN AFFORD
FUNERAL INSURANCE

A few years ago it was uncommon to find any family fully prepared to meet the financial burdens of a bereavement. But today, the funeral payment plan that takes care of the entire cost of a complete funeral is one of the most rapidly growing forms of family protection.

A Funeral Service Plan establishes in advance just how much the funeral shall cost and pays the expenses without taking away from the savings and insurance funds of those who remain. And there is added peace of mind in knowing that no one will have to perform many involved business affairs at a time when hearts are troubled by sorrow.

We will be pleased to tell you about a reliable plan that renders a broad service at low cost.

VOTE YES ON

NUMBER 6

The passage of this proposition in the coming election, on April 8, will enable clean desirable business of a distributing or wholesale type to enter a designated section of our city. This section has never developed as a retail district, and shows no trend towards any such development at the present time. Most of the property in this section has been standing idle since the city was first founded, and unless it can be put to use now, it probably will stand idle for many more years.

Taxes and City Revenue Are Not Derived From Idle Property

In the sample ballots mailed to the voters there is included a copy of Ordinance No. 548, as drafted by the Planning Commission, and passed by the City Council, also, a map of the section effected. This Ordinance clearly states the advantages to be gained by its adoption. Chief among these is the requirement that all business be done within the confines of the building. This means that trucks will not be permitted to load or unload from the curb, and that no merchandise may be allowed to stand outside of the building, or on the sidewalk. Also, it is definitely set forth that no business will be allowed that is objectionable by reason of noise, smoke, odors, etc.

Our post-war planning calls for expansion of peace time business.

PHYSICIANS' SERVICE TO TREAT VETERANS
Immediate out-patient treatment for all veterans who have filed claims for service connected disabilities, regardless of whether they have been adjudicated, is now available through the 6,200 members of the California Physicians Service. The Veterans Administration announced today.
A joint statement issued by Col. Thomas J. Cross, VA chief here, and Dr. Chester L. Cooley, CPS secretary, said care by CPS physicians in their offices will be authorized provided the veteran does not live within a reasonable distance or have easy access to a VA out-patient office or hospital.
Emergency hospitalization in a private hospital may be authorized for service connected disabilities when the condition of the veteran precludes travel or when no bed is available at a VA hospital.
Colonel Cross termed the agreement one of the "biggest steps in speeding up medical treatment for veterans with service-connected disabilities."
The following categories of veterans are entitled to treatment by CPS physicians of their own selection:
1. Those who have filed a claim for service incurred disabilities and are receiving compensation or pension.
2. Veterans who have filed a claim which is pending adjudication. If the claim is eventually disallowed the veteran will not be thereafter entitled to out-patient treatment from CPS.
3. Veterans having acute intercurrent illnesses which are judged to retard recovery from or aggravate a service-connected disability.
4. Disabled veterans receiving vocational rehabilitation training will receive treatment for all conditions regardless of service connection, a lack of which may be judged to interrupt their training.
5. Female veterans are entitled to out-patient treatment in the same categories as male veterans.
6. Veterans whose claim requires a physical examination will be notified by the VA of the proper procedure in contacting a CPS doctor to perform the examination should a VA hospital, regional or subregional office not be reasonably available for such an examination.
CPS is a voluntary health insurance system funded eight years ago by the California Medical Association and its membership includes a great majority of the state's general practitioners and specialists.
Colonel Cross, who directs VA activities in California, Arizona, Nevada and Hawaii, said similar plans are expected to be put in operation in other states under his jurisdiction.

Old Age Pension Meeting April 4
"The Old Age Pensioners of California" a state registered benevolent organization, will sponsor an open meeting to the public, to which all old age pensioners are invited to be present.
The speaker will be Mr. J. H. Walsh, president of the state organization, and he comes direct from the recent special session of the state legislature where he was working in the interest of the aged and blind.
He will bring a message of interest to his listeners. The place - Albany Y.M.C.A. 1:30 p.m. April 4.

JUST FOR TODAY

By RHODA M. BRIGGS

Today I have no treasured store
Of wealth or earthly gain,
So when I'm called to leave this earth
At parting there'll be no pain;

For I only ask, God's guiding hand,
To be my stay and cheer,
That day by day, my task be given
And His love through-out the year.

I want to ease the aching heart,
Rest the head bowed down in grief;
Comfort the wronged, and take their part
And in suffering bring relief.

Just for to-day, Lord, "Let me live,"
In my house by the side of the road;
Let my candle of love shine bright,
As I give
My every day to the Lord.

This poem was inspired by the beauty of the lesson and the discussion, given by Sister Naomi, on "Men are, that they might have joy."

Fun night is the theme for the next Pack meeting and it is the wish of the Committee men that there be a greater cooperation of the parents with the boys in their projects and handicraft work. Harold Howerton spoke on tools and handicraft. A film on Cub Scouting in the Pack was shown after which the boys enjoyed games and a candy bar.

Cornell Pupils See Puppet Show

Cornell School children enjoyed an assembly last Friday afternoon in the school auditorium.

Following the usual student officer reports, under the direction of President Carolyn Bevans, Mrs. Olson's high First graders entertained with a puppet show. The children made their own stage, scenery, and puppets.

Representatives from Mrs. Lowe's and Miss Noble's ceramics classes then gave a demonstration on the making of ceramics and showed a display of the finished product.

This was followed by a lively demonstration by Mr. Stewart's tumbling group, and community singing, led by Mrs. Hillerman, closed the program.

Communication

California Garden Clubs, Inc.
Editor, The Times:

This is an appeal to you for help in informing the people of your community of the importance of observing the law of the State of California regarding the preservation of our native plants, shrubs and trees.

Section 384-A of the Penal Code states that it is unlawful to cut, mutilate, remove or destroy native plants, shrubs or trees, etc., growing along public highways or on privately owned land without written permit from the owner.

This law is enforceable by any peace officer and violation of it is punishable by a fine not to exceed $200 or imprisonment for 6 months or both.

California wild flowers are world famous. They are being destroyed and some face extinction because of the vandalism of our people, consciously or unconsciously.

We ask your help in bringing the substance of this law and the penalty for its violation before the public with an appeal for its strict observance.

Help keep the highways and byways of the State as beautiful as Nature made them. Help prevent the unlawful destruction or removal of our wild flowers.

Yours very truly,

May Bell W. Brendel,
Gertrude R. Hardman,
Elsie Z. Lovegrove.

TO THE CITIZENS OF ALBANY

I have enjoyed to the utmost the privilege of serving you as a Councilman for the past 16 years. I am asking that you re-elect me for another term. A close scrutiny of my record, as recorded in the minutes of the Council meetings, will show that I have always voted for a clean, business like administration. I have always done all in my power to encourage DESIRABLE business and industry to come to Albany, thereby holding taxes to a minimum consistent with the progressive growth of the City. I have always supported the strongest educational and recreational program that the finances of the City could stand.

When representing Albany at meetings with other communities, I have always conducted myself with dignity.

Due to the geographical set-up in the East Bay Area, there are many common problems to be worked out in conjunction with neighboring cities. Through past associations, I enjoy the respect and friendship of many officials of these cities, and can get their sincere co-operation toward the welfare of Albany.

I find myself opposed by an unusually large number of candidates. ALL OF THEM ARE PROMISING TO DO THE VERY SAME THINGS I HAVE BEEN DOING FOR THE PAST 16 YEARS. They can offer nothing better, because there is nothing better to offer. I make no fantastic claims of deeds of the past, nor Utopian promises for the future. During the hard days to come, experienced men are needed to manage the affairs of the city.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH

By R. S. WHITTAKER, M.D.

The story of Nora and how she grew to healthy womanhood after a childhood spent under the shadow of a grave illness is one which I have often told when discussing children's diseases.

Nora was about six years old when she complained that her legs ached. Her mother rubbed them with a liniment and told Nora the aches were "growing pains." The child thought it exciting that she could "feel herself getting tall" and tried to make a game of the dull ache in her legs.

The pain persisted. The mother noticed that Nora was also losing weight and that she was having a great many nosebleeds. She tried to tempt Nora to eat more by preparing special dishes, but the girl seemed to have no appetite. The pains and nosebleeds, accompanied by loss of weight, had gone on for several weeks when small lumps, or nodules, appeared under the skin on Nora's legs.

Then the mother became alarmed and decided it was time to put an end to the "growing pain" game. She brought the child to see me. When I heard about the pains, the nosebleeds and loss of weight and saw the nodules, there was little doubt in my mind that Nora had rheumatic fever. A thorough examination of the child proved that this was true.

It was my unpleasant duty to tell the mother that her daughter had a serious illness. Its seriousness lay principally in the fact that it might cause permanent injury to the heart muscles. Should this happen, it would cause immediate death but it would leave her with a permanently weakened heart.

Although I explained the gravity of the disease to the mother, I also told her that Nora's condition was by no means hopeless. With the proper care she might easily pull through the first attack without damage to the heart and with further care might avoid a recurrence of the disease.

Understanding the danger her daughter faced, the mother cooperated to the fullest in the treatment prescribed for Nora. The child was put to bed at once. She was given nourishing meals and other measures prescribed to relieve her condition. At my request, a visiting nurse went to the house regularly and helped the mother care for the child.

One of the most valuable services performed by the visiting nurse was in planning things for Nora to do while she was in bed—games and hand work which kept her amused without exerting her. Nora seemed to get the most fun out of drawing and painting.

Nora recovered from her attack of rheumatic fever without damage to her heart. Her mother realized, however, that another attack might be more serious. So she brought the child to me to be examined regularly. At the same time, following my advice, she took ever precaution against the child's catching cold or getting run down in any way knowing that she would be more apt to fall prey to rheumatic fever again if her body became weakened by other diseases.

All this was done without pampering the child or letting her feel that she was an invalid who would need special attention all of her life. She was encouraged to keep up her interest in drawing. If she developed a talent in this direction, her mother realized it would keep her from activities which might be harmful to her.

When Nora entered high school, she took special art courses. Upon her graduation two years ago she obtained a position in a commercial art firm. She has continued to study art and gives promise of going far in her chosen work. Already she has had two promotions and is extremely happy.

Now, no doctor could possibly predict that a person like Nora would never again suffer from the disease she had as a child. Rheumatic fever may recur later in life, but the chances that Nora will have no further attacks are overwhelmingly in her favor.

Rheumatic fever is most apt to strike between the ages of 5 and 15, but it may attack older people too. Scientists have not yet discovered exactly what causes the disease.

As I have stated previously, the greatest danger from the disease is possible injury to the heart. Because of this danger, treatment of rheumatic fever should begin as soon as the disease is suspected. The warning signals are vague pains in the arms, legs, or abdomen, frequent nosebleeds, fever, loss of weight, rapid heart action and pallor.

If your child has any of these symptoms she should have a complete physical examination by a doctor. Remember, there isn't such a thing as "growing pains." If your child complains of aches in arms or legs, she may not have rheumatic fever, but if the pains are accompanied by other signs of illness, it is time to see a doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rutan of 646 Spokane Avenue, celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary and Mr. Rutan's 78th birthday on Tuesday, March 26. A dinner party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tamba, 643 San Gabriel, to celebrate the double occasion.

FOR LONG TIRE LIFE!

DURECAP

Exclusive B. F. Goodrich Development Adds Extra Miles to Recapping!

To put more miles in recapped tires, B. F. Goodrich developed DURECAP—another important first in B. F. Goodrich's 75 years of rubber leadership. Why is DURECAP better? Why do DURECAPPED tires wear longer? Because DURECAP is recapping plus Duramin, the exclusive B. F. Goodrich chemical compound that makes tread rubber tougher, more resilient—combats heat deterioration and wear.

That means more life in DURECAPPED treads—more ability to stand up and deliver. So don't delay. Don't let your tires get worn too far before recapping. And don't accept an ordinary recap. Get DURECAP—and extra miles of safe driving on specially designed non-skid treads. Ask us to check your tires today.

DURECAP COSTS $7.00 NO MORE...ONLY $7.00 NOT RATIONED!

B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns

Three years before any other company, B. F. Goodrich sold tires containing synthetic rubber to American car owners. These tires proved their worth in the now famous "80 million mile road test." Today B. F. Goodrich tires are rolling up billions of miles on the cars of essential drivers—lasting longer because of the extra experience in their making. When you must have a new tire, get B. F. Goodrich Silvertown.
